

2010-2011 Schedule of Speaking Engagements by Bart D. Ehrman

Dr. Ehrman is much sought after as a speaker for colleges, universities, divinity schools, civic groups, and religious organizations of all kinds. For his speaking fees and scheduling possibilities, please contact him directly, at behrman@email.unc.edu.

Date	Location	Subject	Organization
Sept. 21-22	Gainesville, FL	"The Greatest Stories Rarely Told. Biblical Scholars and the Discrepancies of Scripture."	Holy Trinity Episcopal Church
Oct. 1	Bethlehem, PA	"Jesus Interrupted. Modern Scholarship and the Bible."	Moravian Seminary
Oct. 15-16	Chapel Hill, NC	"Who Wrote the Bible? Modern Scholars and the Ancient Authors of the New Testament". Program in the Humanities and Human Values.	Chapel Hill, NC
Oct. 19	Banner Elk, NC	"The Greatest Stories Rarely Told: Biblical Scholars and the Discrepancies of Scripture"	Lees-McRae College
Oct. 28	Charlotte, NC	University of North Carolina-Charlotte	University of North Carolina-Charlotte
Nov. 11	Wenham, MA	Debate with Dinesh D'Souza: "Can We Explain the Problem of Suffering?"	Gordon College
Nov. 19	Atlanta, GA	"Does the New Testament Contain Forgeries?"	Biblical Archaeology Society
Jan. 27-28	Knoxville, TN	"Early Christian Forgeries."	University of Tennessee
Feb. 3	Raleigh, NC	"Who Wrote the Bible? Modern Scholars on the Authors of the New Testament"	Meredith College
Feb. 18	Murfreesboro, TN	"Greatest Stories Rarely Told: What Modern Scholars are Saying about the Bible."	Middle Tennessee State University
Feb. 25-26	New Orleans, LA	Debate with Craig Evans: "Are the Gospels Historically Reliable?" New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary.	Greer-Heard Symposium
Mar. 24-25	Stockton, CA	"Does the New Testament Contain Forgeries?"	University of the Pacific
Jun. 27-Jul. 11	Greece, Turkey, and Italy	"In the Footsteps of the Apostle Paul"	Mediterranean Cruise with UNC Alumni Association.